

October 26, 1999

Hillary Rodham Clinton
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

How very kind of you to host a luncheon for all of us the other day in your beautiful White House. I have been there several times, starting with the LBJ administration, where everything was beautifully handled.

During subsequent visits, I was not as impressed. But, when I returned for the Sara Lee Frontrunner awards luncheon, I was delighted to find the White House sparkling, and the service beautiful and attentive, and the food delicious. It was a very heartwarming experience.

Thank you so much. With all good wishes

Julia Child